PURPOSE

The purpose of our 'Safe Church Strategy' is to enable our church's leaders and workers to develop a safe church culture so that all people, involved in or are attending our church's ministries and services, are safe from harm and able to grow in their relationship with God and others.

This document outlines our approach to the protection of people, particularly, children and vulnerable persons, so that we comply with relevant legislation, engage in best practices, and cultivate a safe church for spiritual growth and wellbeing.

Our Safe Church Strategy

- commits us to providing a safe environment for all people especially children and vulnerable persons
- authorises a Code of Conduct for all persons engaged by the church, whether staff or volunteers, who will be in contact with children and vulnerable persons
- provides a process for screening and selecting persons who will attend or participate in ministries with children or vulnerable persons
- provides a process for responding to disclosures of harm or misconduct and for reporting to appropriate authorities
- sets out the training and supervision requirements for all who are engaged by the church, whether staff or volunteers, who are in contact with children and vulnerable persons or attend or participate in ministries with children or vulnerable persons

POLICY COMMITMENT AND GUIDING PRINCIPLES

It is our policy to respect everyone as unique individuals created by God, and to give special attention to the care, protection and wellbeing of children and vulnerable persons. We will behave towards them in a manner that resembles and represents Christ's attitude and approach, providing an environment and ministry that promotes their spiritual, social and physical safety and personal growth and development.

To this end we will promote a "safe church" culture throughout our church, constantly communicating and reinforcing our commitment at all levels of our church's life and ministry.

Regarding the church's commitment to providing a safe environment for all, especially children and vulnerable persons, the church acknowledges that Australian Baptists have agreed to adopt the 10 National Principles for Child Safe Organisations and that these principles represent 'best practice'.

Therefore, the church will have regard to and implement the following principles as integral to our strategy for cultivating a safe church environment and safe activities.

1. Embedding a "safe church" perspective, safety, including child safety, in our church's culture, leadership and governance
2. Respecting children and vulnerable persons by giving them opportunities to participate and have a say in the decisions affecting them

3. Keeping families and communities informed and involved in the development of the church as a safe environment
4. Upholding equity and considering diverse needs
5. Ensuring that people working with children and vulnerable persons are suitable and are properly supported
6. Keeping the processes for responding to complaints of sexual abuse focussed upon the needs and best interests of children and vulnerable persons
7. Equipping staff and volunteers with the knowledge, skills and awareness to keep children and vulnerable persons safe through continual education and training
8. Managing physical and online environments to minimise the opportunity for abuse occurring
9. Continuously reviewing and improving the implementation of these principles for creating and maintain a safe church environment
10. Maintaining up to date policies and procedures that document how the church is a safe place for children and vulnerable persons

SCOPE

The terms children or child in this strategy refer to individuals or an individual who is under 18 years of age.

The term vulnerable persons refers to individuals aged 18 years and above who is or may be unable to take care of themselves or is unable to protect themselves against harm or exploitation by reason of age, illness, trauma or disability, or any other reason

The term church leaders refers to persons appointed by the church according to its constitution as responsible and accountable to the church members for the governance of the church.

The designation Safe Church Coordinator refers to the person appointed by the church leaders to manager the practical implementation of this strategy under the guidance and directions of the church leaders.

This Safe Church Strategy applies to the persons listed below, referred to in this document Safe Church Strategy as staff and volunteers.

Any church leader who is making decisions affecting children or vulnerable persons.

Any person engaged by the church to provide a service to the church, whether paid or voluntarily, and who while providing their service will be in contact with children or vulnerable persons.

Any students or trainees undertaking an internship or field placement at the church and who as part of that internship or field placement will be in contact with children or vulnerable persons.

The Blue Card must be sighted to verify its authenticity before recording its information.

Changes in circumstances affecting a Blue Card

If for a staff member or volunteer there is a change in their circumstances that might or will affect their Blue Card status, then that person must:

- notify immediately the church's Safe Church Coordinator; and
- notify the Queensland Government's Blue Card Services

The Safe Church Coordinator, in consultation with the Church Leaders, can require the person to desist from attending or participating in in any activities that will bring them into contact with children or vulnerable persons.

the applicant to be involved in any church activities that will bring them into contact with children or vulnerable persons.

1. Churches the applicant has attended (or has been involved or connected with) in the past five (5) years are contacted to ascertain whether there have been any alleged or actual incidents of harm involving the applicant (Schedule 3).
2. If the church leaders determine that more detailed information is required from the application, interview the applicant using the questions in Schedule 5 as a guide to ascertain the suitability of the applicant.
3. In the case of a volunteer, the person has attended the church regularly for a minimum of six (6) months unless exceptional circumstances apply.
4. If the applicant has not obtained their Blue Card through the Church, the Church leaders must also arrange completion of a “Link an Applicant/Cardholder to this Organisation” form and submit to Blue Card Services; (available from www.bluecard.qld.gov.au)
5. Where certain roles require registration by the Baptist Union of Queensland (Queensland Baptists), the applicant must also successfully pass the application process under those Registration Guidelines.
6. Where a job or role description has stipulated additional educational, skill or other requirements, the applicant is also required to satisfy these criteria before commencement.

The coordinator must report to the church leaders and the annual church members' meeting about the supervision, support and training of staff and volunteers.

Where a person is appointed either as a staff member or as a volunteer who will have contact with children or vulnerable persons, the Safe Church Coordinator will ensure that the person's Blue Card or Exemption Card details are recorded in a register similar to the template provided by Schedule 4.

The Safe Church Coordinator will in consultation with the staff member or volunteer establish a training plan, setting out the type of training that will be provided, the regularity of the training and the expectations that the church has for the staff member's or volunteer's attendance and participation.

Staff and volunteers must receive training and development on an annual basis, but no staff member or volunteer can have an interval greater than three years between training sessions their training plan.

The following guidelines are for responding to and reporting disclosures or evidence of harm or misconduct (a breach of the Code of Conduct).

1. When a person discloses harm or misconduct, whether it took place recently or a long time ago, we will respond with respect, compassion and appropriate action.
2. In all cases where harm is disclosed, the best interests of the child or vulnerable person will be paramount, and the church response will be clear and transparent to those affected.
3. The church's Safe Church Coordinator will assess and minimise any risks to a child, to children and to vulnerable persons, especially ensuring the safety and support of the child or adult who disclosed harm or misconduct. The coordinator will also respect the right of the child or adult disclosing harm or misconduct to confidentiality and will consult them before reporting their identity and information to others. The coordinator will also consider restrictions imposed by Privacy legislation for passing on information to others.
4. The Safe Church Coordinator will connect the child or person disclosing harm or misconduct with church staff and/or professionals identified by the church as competent to provide care and support during and after the process.
5. The church's Safe Church Coordinator will complete a report to document the disclosure or evidence and the coordinator's and/or church leaders' response (Schedule 6). Care must be taken to record information and evidence in the words of the child or person to assist with the accurate presentation of the information or evidence, especially if the matter is referred to a government department or to the police to be investigated. The church's Safe Church Coordinator will ensure that these reports are properly stored either physically and/or electronically and accessible to the church leaders.

6. Where we have reason to suspect that a child is experiencing harm or is at risk of experiencing harm or being neglected, or receive a disclosure of harm or misconduct, we will contact Child Safety Services and seek information and advice about how to proceed.

During normal business hours – we will contact the Regional Intake Service.

After hours and on weekends – we will contact the Child Safety After Hours Service Centre on 1800 177 135 or (07) 3235 9999.

7. If the alleged misconduct or harm was perpetrated by a Registered Minister of Queensland Baptists, then the Safe Church Coordinator or church leaders will also inform either the QB Safe Church Officer or the Director of Pastoral Services for Queensland Baptists.
8. The person identified by the disclosure as harming and/or guilty of misconduct will be required to step aside from any activities that will bring them into contact with children or vulnerable persons while the matter is being investigated either by the church's Safe Church Coordinator, the church leaders, the police or a government department/agency, and until a determination about the matter has been made.
9. The church leaders in consultation with the Safe Church Coordinator would determine the parameters that will be put in place regarding the attendance and participation of the person identified by the disclosure, in other church meetings and activities during this process. This person will also relate to a person identified by the church leaders to liaise with the person and ensure they are kept informed about the process.
10. Where a staff member or volunteer has breached a legislative requirement pertaining to the protection and welfare of children, or an obligation stipulated by the Blue Card Services, then the authority responsible for issuing the Blue Card will be notified.
11. If the misconduct identified by a disclosure is outside the scope of government legislation and regulations but is covered by the Code of Conduct or the Church's constitution, then the provisions of this strategy and the church's constitution will be applied.

Schedule 7 – A Fact Sheet on Sexual Grooming

A Training Resource

A lot of information exists about how to respond to sexual abuse once it has been discovered. But the best way of protecting children from harm is to be aware of the behaviours that can lead to sexual abuse before it occurs. These behaviours are called 'grooming'. Organisations with unclear boundaries around contact with children can be magnets to people who wish to 'groom' children for sexual abuse (1). By learning about the strategies used to 'groom' children and their families and recognising them as inappropriate behaviours in your service you create an environment that will deter infiltration by sexual abusers (2).

Sexual abuse thrives in secrecy and ignorance. By being alert to potential danger signs, we are better able to understand the steps we can take to keep children as safe as possible.

What is "Grooming?"

Sexual abusers are often people we know; more than 8 out of 10 children (3) who are sexually abused know their abuser. They may hold responsible positions in their local community and can be personable or charismatic. Abusers come from all classes, ethnic and religious backgrounds and may be heterosexual or homosexual. Whilst a high percentage of abusers are men, some are also women (4). You cannot pick an abuser out in a crowd; however, you can identify behaviour that precipitates abuse. This behaviour is known as 'grooming' and research shows us that it can occur for up to 12 months before the actual sexual abuse takes place (5).

Grooming is defined as communication with a child where this is an intention to meet and commit a sex offence (6). More generally it is the process by which an individual manipulates those around them – particularly, but not exclusively, the child – to provide opportunities to abuse and reduce the likelihood of being reported or discovered.

Research suggests that this process can be very deliberate, and while it can occur over a long period of time, sometimes this period is much shorter; there may not be any conscious motivation to sexually abuse a child until just before the abuse occurs. In both cases, there are often opportunities to observe and intervene, even before the would-be abuser is fully aware of what may become sexual intentions.

Unfortunately, identifying sexual grooming of children isn't always straightforward. Sometimes sexual abuse occurs as part of a pre-existing relationship in which there is genuine affection, which makes it a complex issue. But there are often clear signs that can be detected before the abuse occurs.

How Do People Groom Children for Sexual Abuse?

By getting close to children – child sex offenders will often seek out adults and groom them in order to get access to their children. The sex offender can create a relationship built on trust or dependency and gain access to the children through it. Some befriend parents or carers who are facing difficulties or who are vulnerable themselves.

By silencing children – people who want to sexually abuse children may:

- offer them gifts or treats, and sometimes combine these with threats about what will happen if the child says 'no' or tells someone
- threaten them with exclusion from their peer group or loss of favour if they do not comply
- make the child afraid of being hurt physically, or threaten what may happen to other people if the child tells
- play on the child's embarrassment or guilt about what is happening, perhaps convincing them that no one will believe them
- make the child believe he or she wanted it to happen.

Signs an Adult May Be Grooming a Child for Sexual Abuse:

There may be cause for concern about the behaviour of an adult or young person if they:

1. Exhibit frequent physical affection such as kissing, hugging, stroking hair or wrestling even when the child clearly does not want it, or it is not required.
2. Encourage child or children to sit on their lap and offer regular physical comfort or reassurance to a child without a recognised cause.
3. Seek out opportunities to be alone with a child with no interruptions.
4. Spend most of their spare time with children and have little interest in spending time with people their own age.
5. Solicit invitations to sports, events or parties where a child will be.
6. Frequently arrive uninvited to places where the child or their family will be in a series of 'coincidences'.
7. Spend a lot of time around places like arcades, playgrounds, parks and sports venues to get to know children so they are not seen as strangers.
8. Regularly offer support to the family members of the child such as offering to babysit children for free, transport children to events, and help at social occasions involving the child or take children on outings alone.
9. Offer to drive children home or collect children from events on a regular basis.
10. Frequently walk in on children in the bathroom or their bedrooms.
11. Treat a child or group of children as favoured, making them feel special compared with others in a group.
12. Find out as much as possible about the child and use that information to engage the child and drive a wedge between the child and any protective adults, e.g. parents, teachers or coaches.
13. Purchase gifts or collect items of interest regularly for a specific child or group of children.
14. Tell secrets to a child and encourage the keeping of secrets.
15. Display ambiguous sexual behaviour, e.g. showing the child pictures of other children wearing swimsuits or less.
16. Display clearly inappropriate sexual behaviour, e.g. showing the child pornographic pictures, using explicit sexual language around children.

What to do if Abuse is Suspected

Where grooming is suspected, please advise your Safe Church Coordinator who will then take the matter further.

KEY POINTS TO NOTE:

- Child sexual abuse thrives in secrecy.
- People who abuse children may spend up to 12 months 'grooming' a child before they commit a sexual act with them (7). However, the period spent grooming can also be short, with the impulse occurring not long before the abuse happens.
- People do not just 'groom' children, they also 'groom' the adults around them.
- Environments that have defined boundaries regarding appropriate behaviour are less likely to attract sexual abusers (8).
- Educators, volunteers and visitors to the service should follow defined protocols for appropriate behaviour or be excluded from the service.

- Identification of sexual grooming of children in care centres can be a complex issue. The challenge is to be vigilant without creating a siege mentality.

Schedule 8 – Indicators of Abuse

A Training Resource

What is child sexual abuse?

Child sexual abuse occurs when an adult, stronger child or adolescent uses their power or authority to involve a child in sexual activity. Child sexual abuse can cause physical and emotional harm to a child. Sexual abuse can be physical, verbal or emotional and can include:

- kissing or holding a child in a sexual manner
- exposing a sexual body part to a child
- having sexual relations with a child
- talking in a sexually explicit way that is not age or developmentally appropriate
- making obscene phone calls or remarks to a child
- sending obscene mobile text messages or emails to a child
- fondling a child in a sexual manner
- persistently intruding on a child's privacy
- penetrating the child's vagina or anus by either the penis, finger or any other object
- oral sex
- rape
- incest
- showing pornographic films, magazines or photographs to a child
- having a child pose or perform in a sexual manner
- forcing a child to watch a sexual act
- child prostitution

Indicators of sexual abuse

A child may say things, do things or exhibit physical signs that are clues to sexual abuse, even if they do not disclose clear information. Some indicators of child sexual abuse may include:

- displaying greater sexual knowledge than normally expected for their age or developmental level
- inappropriate sexual play and behaviour with themselves, other children or dolls and toys
- hints about sexual activity through actions or comments that are inappropriate to the child's age or developmental level
- excessive masturbation or masturbation in public after kindergarten age
- persistent bedwetting, urinating or soiling in clothes
- persistent sexual themes in their drawings or play time
- running away
- destroying property
- hurting or mutilating animals
- creating stories, poems or artwork about abuse
- difficulty concentrating or being withdrawn or overly obedient

- having unexpected redness, soreness or injury around the penis, vagina, mouth or anus
- having torn, stained or bloody clothing, especially underwear
- recurring themes of power or control in play.

Should any of the above be present, a child may need parents or other adults to take action to keep them safe from any further harm.

Schedule 9 – Guidelines for using electronic communication & social media

A Training Resource

1. Interaction with children and vulnerable persons through electronic communication and social media will be kept to a minimum and usually in a team or group context that allows for transparency and accountability.
2. Where possible and practical, we will seek the permission of a parent or guardian before phoning or messaging a child.
3. When providing pastoral care and support we will do so face to face and in place that is visible and accessible to others.
4. All emails to children and vulnerable persons should have either a church email address cc'd into them or the email address of a supervising church staff member.
5. SMS communication will be restricted to providing general and publicly available information.
6. Emails and SMS messages that are sent or received should be kept and stored in an appropriate place.
7. Church workers will not be Facebook friends or Twitter followers with children. Instead, a specific Facebook page, Instagram account or any other similar social media outlet related to our church's ministry will be set up and used for communicating with children.
8. Church workers will not engage in video conversation with children without the permission of a parent or guardian, and only after explaining the purpose of the video conversation.
9. Any photographs of children's ministry activities will be taken by someone appointed by the church leaders and with parental consent.
10. Photographs of children will not be used for promotional purposes without the permission of a parent or guardian.
